POSITION: Senior Software Engineer

Responsible for building, enhancing and installing applications deployed worldwide for the electronic trading of interest rate swaps. Participate and drive the entire software development life cycle from requirements gathering to end-user installation. Review requirements, design, develop, test and prepare for releases. Architect complex software engineering solutions with emphasis on creating highly performant services. Apply design patterns and object oriented techniques. Lead other team members in design and coding phases. Participate in code review and team design sessions. Assist in builds, configuration management, and source control. Liaison with QA to ensure quality product is delivered to customers. Telecommuting permitted.

Statement of Minimum Qualifications

1. Education:
   - U.S. or Foreign Equivalent Masters degree in Computer Science or Electrical Engineering

   AND

2. Work Experience:
   - 3 years of experience in Java and Spring development;
   - 2.5 years of experience working in the domain of finance or capital markets;
   - 2 years of hands-on experience with deploying production grade code; and
   - 6 months of hands-on experience with SQL queries and database triggers

The above experience can be obtained in one or more positions

Qualified applicants submit resume to careers@clear-markets.com.